This past weekend we looked at 1 Corinthians 13:1-9 as a way to understand what Jesus was inviting us toward in Luke 6:43-45.

Luke 6:43-45 | 1 Corinthians 13:1-9

Pause. Take time to prayerfully consider what has been read,

D I S C U S S

- 1) In reading the two texts together, what do you sense Jesus is revealing to you about Him and yourself?

Out of our reflection on 1 Corinthians 13 we saw that the evidence of a transformed heart is that we have been humbled by Love, captivated by Love and saved by the Love of Christ for us.

- 2) What are the implications in our lives when we experience this kind of Love? What difference does it make in our words, actions and relationships?
- 3) What areas of your heart do you think Jesus is calling you to surrender to his perfect Love today?
- 4) What difference do you think that would make in the kind of fruit evidenced in your life?

Share how the Spirit is inviting you to respond today and the week to come – to be with Jesus, to become like Jesus, or to do what Jesus does.

P R A Y

Pray for the courage to surrender to the perfect love of Jesus

Pray that we would see the fruit of this surrender in our words and actions in our lives

Take time to wait and pray together. What is Jesus praying for? Come into agreement with His prayers.
